

Legislative Caucus on Aging Presents A Glimpse into the Challenges of Aging in Colorado in the 21st Century

WHAT: You are invited to learn about what Coloradans are saying regarding the challenges of aging and how vulnerable the aging population is in Colorado.

WHEN: January 26, 2018 - 7:30 am to 8:45 am - continental breakfast and coffee

WHERE: 1525 Sherman - Room 603

WHO WILL PRESENT:

- SAPGA Overview and Conversations on Aging (regional meeting summary) - Karen Brown, SAPGA Chair
- Governor's Senior Policy Advisor on Aging - Wade Buchanan
- Colorado Seniors and Their Health: Where Are Older Adults Most Vulnerable? - Colorado Health Institute, Sara Schmitt
- Legislative Discussion of 2018 Aging-related legislation

WHY: With unprecedented growth - the third fastest in the nation - the number of people aged 65 and older in Colorado will increase by nearly 70 percent by 2030. This rapid change will affect nearly every aspect of Coloradan's lives - from the economy - to state and local budgets - to job growth.

QUESTIONS/RSVP: For questions and to RSVP, please contact Andrea Wilkins with the Sinergie Project at 303.521.1759 or at andrea@sinergieproject.com or Karen Brown - SAPGA Chair - at karen.peffer.brown@gmail.com.

HOSTED BY: The Legislative Caucus on Aging Co-Chairs - Senator Beth Martinez Humenik and Representative Joann Ginal and the Strategic Action Planning Group on Aging (SAPGA).
