

Strategic Action Planning Group on Aging

Work Force Committee Meeting
February 10, 2020 10:30 am – 11:30 am
1001 17th Street Denver, Colorado
605-472-5561 PIN: 507406#

- 10:30 am Introductions
- 10:35 am Update on Office of Future Work – Katherine Keegan, Director
- 10:50 am Age-Friendly Workplace Initiative – Karen Brown and Janine Vanderburg
- 11:15 am Reactions from CWDC Meeting – Phil Nash
- 11:20 am Next Steps
- 11:30 am Adjourn

Workforce Committee Meeting Minutes – January 13, 2020

Key Takeaways:

- February 27, 2020 Age-Friendly Workplaces Conference highlighting Transamerica and University of Iowa research funded by NextFifty Initiative
- Office of Future Work report out around August 2020
- Important to frame “older worker” narrative so that it captures or references other generations that just baby boomers (e.g., millennials, Gen-X)
- Possibly connect with Evan Abbott, Employers Council

Working Group Areas for 2020

- Focus on employers and intentional hiring of older workers
 - Look into incentives for employers
- Explore opportunities to coordinate efforts with Katherine Keegan at the Office of Future Work
- Focus on volunteerism
- Continue direct care workforce focus

Action Items:

- Jarett Hughes to reach out to Katherine Keegan, Office of Future Work
- Invite Colorado Workforce Development Council to March 11 Aging Caucus
 - Who does this?
- Jarett Hughes to follow-up with Directors of Volunteers in Agencies (DOVIA)